

Graphic Design Intern

- Come up with a concept to embody the Huskies team in the 2018 season, and use that concept in all the design materials that you create
- Work with printers to gain an understanding of what is needed on their end to print properly and make their deadlines on time
- Create marketing materials to assist the marketing team in selling tickets, promotion nights, etc...
- Design promotional items such as pocket schedules, posters, order forms and tickets
- Work on special Huskies jerseys, hats, etc... to be worn game day
- Attend and be involved in Huskies events to promote the team
- Work with the office staff to make decisions about the team program. Design the cover. Work with a handful of businesses to design their ads. Create a layout and template for the entire program for print.
- Design logos for apparel and soft goods to be sold in the store or handed out as giveaways at games
- Work with businesses to create banners to be hung along the outfield and backstop walls at Wade Stadium.

In Season

- Use the team photos to design promotional posters for the poster giveaway night
- Update the Huskies Howl, which contains photos of all the current players and is for sale for fans to buy to get signed by the players
- Stay in contact with the GM in case of miscellaneous projects needed along the way during the season

It's a team effort all Interns will be expected to help and pitch in, in other areas besides their own
