

Game Day Operations Intern

Game Day Operations interns are some of the most driven and hardest working people you can find. Those who desire a career in sports will receive experience in all aspects of game day. A Game Day Operations intern receives a well-rounded experience and a rewarding feeling at the end of the season. They are involved in every aspect of game day operations as well as assisting in event management and promotions.

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled or recently graduated
- Actively pursuing a career in Management, Sports Management, Marketing, Operations, or a related field
- Willingness to work long hours
- Organized and have a keen eye for detail.

Responsibilities

On gameday

- Set up the ballpark for each day including tables, chairs, tents, etc
- Direct quality control and ensure walkways and seating areas are clear at the end of the game
- Work closely with the General Manager and owner to complete tasks
- Assist concessions manager
- Serve players, umpires, and coaches meals pre and post-game
- Manage ticket system
- Direct fan relations

Before gameday

- Accept and put away deliveries
- Work closely and doing any tasks given by general manager and owner
- Assist in planning on-field promotions

After gameday

- Clean up and tear down of stadium
- Direct staff in cleaning duties

And other duties as assigned to all interns.